

GENERAL RESEARCH

Badgerlink

~Your “go-to” for research. Thousands of newspapers, images and other reference materials.

BioReference Desk

~Database of biographies from over half a million people ranging from scientists to activists from antiquity to present

CQ Researcher/Weekly

~Contains articles on controversial topics perfect for research papers and speeches, dating back to 1983

Newsbank Historical

~News articles covering topics such as government, social issues, culture, inventions from primary sources between 1690-1922

Overdrive

~Audiobook collection, download to iPod using student computer login and ID number for password

LOGIN INFORMATION-

USERNAME: arrowhead1

PASSWORD: hawks

AHS LIBRARIES:

DATA BASE INFORMATION

CONTENT SPECIFIC

Access Science

~Scientist biographies, breaking science news, illustrations and animations

AllData

~Automotive repair information and TSBs updates and recalls

ABC Clio—Social Studies

~US government, World geography & history; explains controversies and gives artifacts

Career Cruising

~Explore careers and education; keep resume and portfolio
(username-'arrowhead', password-'careers')

Culture Grams

~Native writers from over 200 countries; gives perspective on daily life and culture

Facts on File Health

~Advanced information on diseases and health and wellness

LitFinder

~Large literature database: poems and stories

SIRS Decades/Knowledge Source

~Decades-primary and secondary sources from specific era

~Knowledge-broad database of journals

Teen Health and Wellness

~Comprehensive support on diseases, drugs, alcohol, nutrition, family life etc.

SEARCHING TIPS

1. Research question.
2. Appropriate database.
~Use the other side to choose the database(s) that will best answer your question.
3. Start general.
4. Be precise.
~Use “and” to narrow
~Use “or” to broaden
~Use “not” to eliminate
~Truncate your topic word
5. Limit your searches.
~Look for options to search only full-text articles, photos, or multi-media tools
6. Be advanced!
~Choose “advanced search” for more specific content

LIBRARY HOURS

South Library: 6:45-3:00 Mon-Fri
North Library: 6:45-4:00 Mon-Fri

OTHER RESOURCES

eBooks

Option 1: access via catalog

1. Novell window application
2. “Library Catalog”
3. Drop down menu has eBook

Option 2: access via web

1. AHS Library Homepage
2. Books sub-page
3. Overdrive icon

OVERDRIVE/SAFARI MONTAGE

LOGIN: normal network login

PASSWORD: ID number

SafariMontage

~On AHS Database website: includes thousands of educational videos.

Soundzabound

~On AHS Database website:
copyright free music-downloading free

Wi-fi Access— “AHSguest”

~Login as regular AHS computer

MORE INFORMATION